

Canine Freestyle: Building the Relationships

A Two-Day Seminar presented by the Gold Coast Guild of the Canine Freestyle Federation
September 11-12, 2010 Napa, California
Presented by Kristin Sicotte of Minnesota

Beginning through experienced freestylers welcome!

Saturday, September 11: The Building Blocks of Choreography

It's all about the dog and your journey together ...

- Discovering how movement talks
- Creating sentences and phrases
- Technical execution and the performance space

Sunday, September 12: Movement as a Means of Expression

- Developing the team
- Artistry is relationships
- The joy of freestyle: celebrating and sharing

This seminar is very interactive. As a participant, you will have the opportunity to develop phrases that you may be able to use in your own freestyle routines!

NOTE: You may choose to attend Saturday only, but Saturday attendance is a pre-requisite for attendance on Sunday.

THE INSTRUCTOR: Kristin Sicotte is a competitor, judge and member of the Board of Directors for the Canine Freestyle Federation (CFF). She has been a member of CFF since 2002. She taught classes in Maryland and currently resides and teaches in Minnesota. She is the Training Director for the North Star Notes Guild in Minnesota and loves presenting seminars for CFF. Kristin provides the Music Selection Service for CFF, and is currently competing at CFF's Level IV with one of her rare and beautiful Azawakh dogs.
